Prologue-The Escape

Tommy POV

I was done with exile all I have endure her was pain, hunger, and loneliness no one visited me I was alone with my jailer a monster I started to grab my things and remember what my old friend Eryn gave me a secret crafting item to escape this place

I grabbed my 'Your Tubbo' compass and crushed it along with my communicator and left to find what I needed for getting this item called a Heart of a Sea

(What Tommy didn't realize is when Dream saw him leaving he started to make a plan)

I started to go to a Village and trade with what little emeralds I had and gotten some food and a decent axe and a water breathing helmet I saw a wandering trader just standing around so I thought he may have some clues on how to get a heart of the sea

"Hey sir may I ask you something," I asked the villager

"Sure kid what you need" The Villager replied

"I need information on how to get a heart of the sea," I said making the villager think until he remembers something at least I think

"Treasure maps usually anyone can make one but the map maker here trades them I have one for sell if you want one," The villager said and I nodded

"3 emeralds," He said which made me white-out that was the exact amount I had left was leaving this server really worth it ... Yes it is I grabbed my Emeralds and gave it to him as he gave me the map, and I up and I left to the location marked on the map

Dream POV

As soon as I saw Tommy leaving the campsite I can tell he was trying to do something so I went to his dearest oldest brother's cabin and try to get him to kill him

I walk through the tundra and saw the cabin I walked up the stairs and knock waiting for the Piglin to answer

Soon enough he open the door I look at him and said

"I'm here for that favor," I said making Techno immediately narrow his eyes

"And what may that favor be," He said

"To join me in the hunt for your brother he left exile and as his enforcer, I have to get him back," I said which made Techno a bit superstitious

"Y'know exile means everyone leaves him alone even you are you sure there's no alternative motive here or," Techno said scratching his head at what I said

"I'm the admin techno do you want to be free of your favor or not," I said which he then shrugged and went to get his armor and weapons ready

"Oh by the way L'manburg will help us you won't mind right," I said to him which he later stopped and looked at me

"I kinda do mind actually but I prefer being debt-free so sure I don't care," Techno said going back to get his things

I grabbed my communicator and typed the message for the whole SMP

Dream: Tommyinnit has escaped exile you will team up with me and Technoblade or else you're country will reach bedrock we will meet at the exile grounds

I sent the message which I received many complaints but ultimately they agreed

I smiled at the chance of this new manhunt starting

Tommy POV

As soon as I met a beach I started to dig an honestly it was boring but sometimes it can be rewarding as soon enough I found a chest which only took 15 minutes

I opened it to see some useless books some gold and iron nuggets and a heart of the sea the thing I was looking for I tried remembering what else Eryn told me on how to make the portal and

'5 Ender eyes

1 Ender pearl

1 heart of the sea

And when inserted in the portal sprinkle them with blaze powder

But be very careful this is very fragile Toms'

That's it I had pearls and blaze rods from stealing at them community portal chest at the nether and some pearls since I found some enderman being stupid and trying to go in the water and some TNT from dream who left it on accident I think

I made the number of eyes I needed and started throwing them and following them making sure I don't throw them too hard so they don't break I assume I was getting close since they started going to the floor until I heard

"The compass says he's right here Dream" A familiar voice that sounded like Tubbo said

I quickly dug down at where the eyes pointed me and as soon as I hit the final block I fell at the stronghold so I got up and started running trying to find the portal and later

[Tommyinnit unlock the achievement Eye Spy]

I saw the portal and started doing what Eryn told me until

[Dream unlock the achievement Eye Spy]

[Tubbo_ Unlock the achievement Eye Spy]

[Philza Unlock the achievement Eye Spy]

[Technoblade unlock the achievement Eye Spy]

[Fundy unlock the achievement Eye Spy]

I looked back and saw the people chasing me and saw everyone I knew

"Tommy y'know it's illegal to go to the end right" Dream said getting his sword out

"Tommy your just fucking things up for us! you didn't even make the portal right" Tubbo yelled at me

Techno and Phil just looked disappointed at me while Fundy just looked like he didn't want to be here

"I know but I don't care," I said making everyone stare at me

"You should Tommy breaking this rule means death" Dream said stepping forward until I bought out my disks

"You see these Dream," I said making him just turn his head while the others looked confused

"These are my greatest attachment I risk my life for this y'know why because it was the last thing I had of my mother," I said making Phil and Techno flinch at that name

"I remember how she played the song every time and danced with me when everyone left until she died," I said later breaking them in half making everyone gasp

"But I guess my value to them doesn't matter," I said throwing them to the lava

"And since so many of you guys wanted me dead or gone I'm doing you a favor," I said placing the final eye in the frame and sprinkling the blaze powder making the portal change color

"By leaving," I said placing TNT and lighting it up while jumping on the portal ignoring the screams for name

As soon as I woke up I saw a weird town with fresh air until someone said something to me

"Uhh hey kid you alive" a lab counted man said

Chapter 1-The journey begins

Tommy POV

As soon as I heard the weird lab coated person speak I scream at the top of my lungs until he cover my mouth

"Hey hey it's okay your safe kid just calm down," He said but I wasn't believing him I threw his hand out of my mouth and ran to the opening I saw until he stopped me

"Kid don't you know it's dangerous going to the tall grass," he said while grabbing my shirt

"Wait what the fk do you mean it's dangerous," I said then I was silent as I beep while I was cursing so this weird place had a filter

"You don't know," He said surprised

"I mean yeah I just woke up here bh," I told him while he looked surprised

"Okay so in this tall grass there's something called Pokémon and they're little creatures," He said pulling out a weird ball shape thing and it popped open showing three cute little things

"With quite a cute look and a powerful punch I'm Professor Elm and here in the Johto region I study the mystery of pokémon eggs and how Pokèmon lay them," Professor Elm said

"Ok Elm I'm Tommy I'm sorry for freaking out" I apologized to him while he just laughed

"Hey Tommy since you don't know anything about pokémon how about you be my assistant, of course, you can choose your own partner pokémon," Elm said I thought about it and honestly it sounds good I get a cute companion and I learned about this world

"Sure" I agreed while he just snapped his fingers making his pokémon line up

"Ok Tommy now I'll introduce you to these guys but you can only choose one so here's

Chickorita the Grass Pokémon she a great help on anything and is quite gentle with little kids

And Here's Cyndaquil the Fire Pokémon he's got a great personality but he's quite shy but don't let that stop you and he's got a power inside him just waiting to shine

And lastly Totodile the water type Pokémon he's playful but just like Cyndaquil he's strong but he's also really dense

So who would you choose Tommy" Elm said explaining everything to me while also telling me about the Pokémon I looked at them and couldn't decide until I saw Cyndaquil he looked unsure about being here like he didn't belong he kinda looks like me when I was younger and exiled

I walk to Cyndaquil and pet his head

"Cyndaquil will you be my partner," I said making the Cyndaquil jump around with happiness and hugged me

Elm walked to me with a smile and the ball machine out again

"This is his Poké ball say Cyndaquil return and the energy beam will take him back inside," Elm said I looked at Cyndaquil then at the ball and decided

"Can he stay outside? I don't want him to think I'm ignoring him" I asked to which he just gave it to me and nodded

"You can also nickname him if you want," he said I turn to Cyndaquil and thought what would be a good name I'll be honest I'm not good at naming things but for him, he needs the best name

I thought about Techno and his stupid mythology names and I decided which one I wanted to name him

"His name is Ares," I said then a little window popped in my front of I think it's normal since Elm didn't seem surprised

[Ares joined the Team]

Elm put the others back into their Poké balls and he walk me to a building he called his lab and it was really high tech

"Ok so Tommy as I told you I am a Pokémon researcher but since you don't have any clue about this region I have a gift for you to keep," Elm said giving me 2 red things

"That's the Pokédex it's an encyclopedia of everything Pokémon you caught and that is a Pokégear which has a map and a phone to call me when needed you know how to use a phone right," he said I nodded since communicators were a thing from my world and phones were still very rare and still in development but I used one before from Eryn who somehow stole from the rich since he a weird Ninja demon

"Ok so Tommy before anything my good friend Mr. Pokémon called me saying that he has an egg for me to research but I'm really busy to go get it can you get it for me," Elm said

"Sure thing can you mark it on my map," I asked to which he nodded and put a red dot on my pokégear

"Ok bye Professor Elm!" I said before leaving the lab and stepping into the tall grass

"Cynda!" Ares yelled at me trying to get my attention to which I grabbed him

"What is it Ares," I asked he just jump to my arms to my shoulder and just stood there so I assumed he just wanted to stand there

I was nearing the exit of these woods until a Pokemon jumped at me

"Pidgey," the Pokémon said which made me know its name is Pidgey

"Go, Ares!" I said making Ares jump to the field until I heard my pokègear ring

"Hey Tommy I forgot to mention in the pokègear it will show you what moves your Pokémon know they can only know a minimum of 4 moves so when they learn a new move when they have four you have to make them forget one. That's it good luck" Elm said hanging up the call

I looked at the moves to only see Tackle and Leer and he was lvl 5 that I have no idea was so I'll ask Elm later

The Pidgey started to throw sand at Ares

"Ares dodge it and use Tackle!" I commanded as my inner general from my L'manburg days was coming out

"Cynda!" Ares yelled before hitting the Pidgey on its side making the Pidgey faint until I got a beep on my pokègear

[Ares has leveled up to LVL 6]

[Would you like to learn about levels?]

"Yes"

[Level mark as experience for pokémon the more experience they get the stronger they get and more moves they get some Pokemon evolve with leveling up and some with stones and other magical items some by trading and other with specific properties needing to happen]

Ok, that's understandable thank you pokègear

[Ares learned Smokescreen]

I checked what the moved did and it lowered evasion by 1 stage which I thought was useful I checked the other moves to see leer lowered defense by 1 stage which was again useful and tackle which did some damage I guess there more better moves

I walked past the woods and reached what the sign said Cherrygrove City

"Hey young man" An Old man called my name

"Oh Hello sir" I greeted back

"Hello kid you must be a new trainer huh well any new trainer that comes here I show the ropes follow me and I tell you some useful information," he said while pulling my hand and dragging me to a red roof building

"That's the Pokecenter where if your Pokèmon get hurt it's a place for them to get healed for free and a place for trainers to stay for the night," he said which made me glad they had somewhere to heal Pokèmon as he pulled me to a blue roof building

"And That's the Pokemart where you buy your essentials like potions to heal and poke balls to capture new Pokèmon and some medicine for status effects," he said which made me question what those are

"Uhh sir what is that," I asked he just looked shocked

"Here give me your pokègear so I can put a guide for you to read young man," he said I gave him my pokègear and he put the guide there which I was grateful

"I'm that's all it kid I will see you around," the old man said leaving me and decided to go to the Pokecenter and heal up Ares and I saw a pretty girl that reminded me of Niki

"Hello welcome to the Pokecenter I'm nurse joy may I heal you're Pokemon," Nurse joy asked

"Yes please how long will this take," I asked

"Oh boy that long just a couple of minutes," Ms.Joy said taking Ares

"Ok thank you be good Ares," I said

"Cyndaquil" Ares talked back in what I assumed was sass while he was gone I took the guide the old man gave and read it trying to learn what these world buildings are but it seems it also had information on some items here

A couple of minutes went by and I was halfway through the book until

"Hello sir Ares is back in full health," Ms.Joy said

"Thank you Ms" I thank her for her service

"It's my job I hope you come again," Joy said as I left the Pokemon center

"Ok Ares time to go through Route 30 for Mr. Pokèmon's house," I told him as he went back to my shoulder

As I walked through Route 30 it was really busy with other trainers battling, I hope I don't have to do that, I'd rather not let Ares get hurt

But the walk was rather pleasant and calming no wild Pokémon even jump me I spent the whole walk reading the guidebook the old man gave me while Ares was sleeping

I guess I wasn't paying attention for when I finish the book I hit my head on a door that had a sign

Welcome to Mr.Pokémon House.

So, I'm at his house, I knocked for a bit until an Old Man open it who, I assume, was Mr. Pokémon

"Hello Mr. Pokémon" I greeted.

"Oh I'm not him, I'm Professor Oak, Mr. Pokémon is right there," Oak said laughing at the end there while also pointing to a table.

I walk to where the actual Mr. Pokémon is and shook his hand.

"Hi Mr. Pokémon Professor Elm sent me here for the egg you wanted to give him," I said.

"Oh yes the egg here you go kid," he said handing a massive egg, I was honestly shocked how small these guys are and what they make? Lay? Summon? Eggs this big, I was about to leave until Oak stopped.

"Hey Young Man if you ever finish whatever you're doing with Elm may you help me with my research you got an air that no other region I've been to had, It's almost as if you're not from here," Oak said, leaving Mr. Pokémon house.

"Well kid give Professor Elm my regards and I hope his research goes smoother," Mr. Pokémon said going to his kitchen.

"I will sir bye," I said leaving his house

I looked at Ares who seemed to be restless, so he just walked next to me instead of being on my shoulder I was nearing Cherry grove City and was heading for the Pokemart until a Red Head walked up to me

"... You got a Pokémon at the lab. What a waste" The Red Head said with disgust.

I was stunned silent at this guy like dude I'm just an assistant. I really wish I can curse without the weird filter this world has.

"That Pokémon is too good for a Wimp like you," The Redhead said, crossing his arms

"Hey man, what do you mean, me and Ares did nothing to you!" I yelled back at this asshole's rudeness.

The Redhead Scoffed "You don't get what I'm saying Punk, I guess I have to teach you what I mean" The redhead said pulling out a Poke Ball

"GO TOTODILE!" the redhead said, throwing out his Pokémon

I was stunned before Ares just got into a battle position

[???? Wants to battle]

“Use Scratch” ???? Commanded

I got myself mentally ready after all of this, but I was too late as Ares got hit

"Ares are you okay!" I yelled at him.

"Cynda!" Ares said, which, I assume, was a yes.

"Ok, Ares use Smokescreen!" I commanded making Ares throw a black ball at the Red Heads Pokémon making him unable to see.

"Great Now use Tackle!" I said making Ares run-up to the Totodile and slam at him.

"Crap Totodile use leer" "???" Commanded but Totodile missed.

"Use Tackle again Ares" I commanded at Ares who again run-up to the Totodile and slam at him doing more damage than the last attack since the Totodile fainted

[Ares has leveled Up to level 7]

"... You just got lucky," The Red Head said.

[You won ₱500]

Did I get money for winning? This world is weird, I just ignored it and I turned to the Red Head.

"Hey, what's your name?" I asked while he was silent.

"You want to know my name fat chance kid if you would like to know I'm going to be the best trainer in the world," He said running of dropping something I picked it up and saw his Trainer license with his name which made me realize I need one guess that's something to ask Elm for

I was staring at his name while I wasn't paying attention, he went to me and grabbed it

"You saw my name didn't you," he said looking panicked he quickly ran off

"That was weird Ares," I said while Ares just seemed to agree with me, I walked out of New Bark Town until my Pokégear rang

"Hello, Professor Elm, what's wrong?" I asked.

"Tommy, It's a disaster! Uh, um, it's just terrible! What should I do? It... Oh, no... Please get back here now!" Elm said before hanging up

"Come on let's go Ares, the Professor needs us." I yelled grabbing him and carrying him and then proceeding to run all the way to New Bark Town and went to his lab only to see him talking to a lady with blue hair.

"And Then he just-Oh hello Tommy I'm talking to Officer Penny about what happened," Elm told me, stopping his conversation with Officer Penny

"Hey, kid, you seen a Red Head Male with a stolen Totodile?" Penny asked.

"Oh I have actually he even dropped his Trainer license which I was going to ask you about Professor Elm," I said putting Ares down

"Oh I knew I forgot to give you something I'll go print it out while you talk to Penny" Elm said going to his computer

"Ok, kid, What's his name?" Penny said pulling out a notebook that listed previous facts Elm had said.

"Oh, his name is"

[Rival Name has been chosen]
[Larry]

"His name is Larry Officer Penny," I told her as she wrote his name down

"Ok thanks kid, I'll try to arrest the culprit I hope you and Elm have a safe day," Penny says as she leaves the lab as we both left out a breath

"Okay Tommy, did you bring the Egg Mr.Pokémon wanted to give me," Elm asked.

"Oh yeah here," I said putting the Egg on the Table

"Thank you, Tommy oh I have some new things for you first is your Trainer card," Elm said giving me a trainer card and a wallet to save my trainer card in

"And some new clothes since yours are very ... not well," Elm said giving me new clothes I just noticed my clothes are still ripped and dirty from exile

"Go change while I get your last gift," Elm said pushing me into a closet that was fairly big to which I'm glad since I am claustrophobic I put the new clothes on and a hat? Weird, I put it on along with the jacket.

(A/N it's the Johto male protagonist clothes if you're wondering what he's wearing)

I grabbed the bag he also left and got out of the closet to see Elm with a new Pokémon

"Soo Tommy I know having Pokémon are great so my friend bill who runs the Pokémon boxes gave me this little guy for you," Elm said giving me a white fox-like Pokémon

"Eevee," The Pokémon said, so I guess its name is Eevee

"His name is Eevee do you want to name him," Elm said while also giving me Eevee Poke ball

I tried thinking for a good name but nothing came up

"Sorry I don't have anything, can I name him later?" I asked Elm, worried he might take Eevee away from me.

"Oh sure you can, he's your after all," Elm said making me let out my breath

[Eevee joined the team]

"So Elm, what now?" I asked.

"Well, I have to clean the lab up and see if the Egg is stable enough to hatch. So, want to help me clean the lab?" Elm asked which I groan to, but I nodded as he did help me get a lot, so I got the broom and started to sweep.

Overall Elm was nice to me when we finish cleaning he asked if I had a place to stay when I told him I didn't he let me sleep on the second floor of the lab since he has his own house with a wife and daughter he was honestly a good father

(Phil was never there for me, only for Will and Techno)

I went to my room that he gave me and looked at the window Ares was already asleep, but I saw Eevee looking at me with concern

"Hey Eevee what's wrong," I asked

"Vee" Eevee said, I guess he wants me to tell him my problems

"Eevee, is it okay that I tell you ... My problems" I asked Eevee who just put his paw in my hand and nodded.

"When I was little my mom had these music disks, and she always played them and started to dance, and she always did it with me when I was little I felt like it was the best thing in the world," I said looking at the sky tears already falling

"Until she suddenly got I'll and my Dad and Brothers started to avoid me I had no idea why later my Oldest brother left to use a sword and become a legend and my Father left to travel the world making statues and monuments while my other big brother he ... stayed and always yell at me, I was little what can I do except just see everything I later ran away to a place with no rules and life was better until I went to this place called the Dream SMP and well" I looked at Eevee who was also crying I don't know why he never went through what I went through he was innocent

"Fights happen later my brother came back and tried to make amends on what he did, but soon that didn't matter he just wanted to make a legacy like my other family and used me and my ... My Nephew was forced to grow up fast both in the literal sense and mentally soon me and him got banished on the place my brother founded and were forced to hide in a cave he got worse and started to hurt me and yell at me all the things he said when I was little" I said grabbing my wrist while my nails plunge into my skin making me bleed Eevee saw this and tried pushing my hands away.

"Thanks, Vee soon enough my Oldest brother came back to help, but he never tried stopping my other brother from hitting me later when we tried fighting for our place again we won, but my brother didn't like it when we were going to make a new person in charge and started to attack us while he was doing that my other brother blew up the whole place and when he did that ... that was when I saw my father there my brother yelled at him with his insane mind and later my brother died by my father hand," I said taking a deep breath in and out

"Soon I played a fun prank one that everyone else did in that place, and now they wanted me to leave with a ... smile man, and he took me to an island that was very lonely and he ... hit me make go hungry, and later he just made me feel like everything was my fault I know it's not now but who cares I got desperate and started to leave I found this ... magical item and started to use it until they all found me we exchanged some words, but I finally snapped I guess since I broke and threw my mother's disks in a fire and went through that magical item, and now I'm here," I said fully crying I just put my face in the table not being able to look up until I felt a paw on my face I got up and saw Eevee who put his paw away only to place it in my heart

"Vee Eevee," Eevee said with a smile and a huff his tail wagging I guess this is his meaning of I will protect you

"Heh Thanks, Vee," I said until it dawn on me The Perfect Name

"I think I know what to name you there was a god that means protection if I remember correctly his name was Soteria what do you think," I asked Eevee

"Vee Eevee Vee," Eevee said, jumping up and down in agreement

"Okay Soteria it is," I said

I was currently sleeping peacefully until Soteria and Ares decided to jump on his stomach to wake him up

"Cynda" Ares looked at Soteria "Vee" Soteria agreed as they both jumped on My stomach waking him up

"What heck guys," I said grabbing his stomach

"Well it's morning Tommy I made breakfast," Elm said placing pancakes on the table and leaving to the lab

I got up and grabbed my pancakes while Ares and Soteria we're what I guess what they were eating Pokémon food, making me question that they have their own food

"So you guys have your own food" I said, making Ares and Soteria just nod while going back to eating

I just shrugged and went back to my pancakes eating WITHOUT the in syrup since I don't know where it is

When I finished my plate, and then I just placed it in the sink then I went to the cabinets looking for some soap to wash my plate which there was a lot of, so I got something that had soap in its name since I'm not familiar with cleaning brands here

I was my plate and got ready for the day and went to the lab

"Hello Professor Elm are you busy," I said greeting him and asking, so I can help

"Oh Hello no I am not I'm mostly just watching the egg in case it hatches, but I have some board games want to play some while listening to the TV" Elm said while pointing at a big black thing I guess that was a TV

"Sure Professor Ares and Soteria don't make a mess," I said making my Pokémon just look at me like kids saying 'we won't' which I decided to trust them

While Me and Elm were listening to whatever was on the TV my Pokémon were just playing tag It was very nice and calming while I was just listening to the TV until the news gave something that caught my interest

"And now it's that time of year again where you can now challenge the gym leaders and if you get all 8 gym badges you can try your hand at the elite 4 and champion," The announcer said giving a silhouette of 4 people and one person on a pedestal

I was honestly pretty hooked on doing it, I look at Elm and saw that he was just smiling

"You want to do the Gym challenge, Tommy," Elm said

"Yeah it looks cool, and I think I have a shot at winning," I said, making Elm laugh

"Well you don't need to register here but if we were in If I can recall the Galar region you would need a parent to sign up for you actually Tommy do you have any parents," Elm asked which made me go blank

'Do I tell him I mean Phil is my Dad, but he was never there for me my Mom is dead and my brother they hate me I mean what about Fundy does my nephew hates me he did grow up faster due to his Fox genes so in a way I do have two family members my Mom and Nephew since they tried to be there Fundy did nothing wrong it was just his Fox genes and Mom loved me she was always there'

"I have a nephew who's ... in a different region I don't know where, but my Mom is ... Dead," I said, making Elm look sad and remorseful

"It's okay Tommy but let's get back on topic you can do the Gym Challenge if you promise me you can take care of yourself," Elm said which I nodded

"Okay, but first I must teach you something," Elm said while leaving the lab I follow him, and we went to the tall grass

"Okay Tommy this is how you catch a Pokémon there comes a time when you find a Pokémon and you want it so you can catch it here I'll show you," Elm said while walking around

Soon a Pidgy came out of the grass

[Elm]

[Poke Ball Pocket]

[>Poke Ball x50]

[Use]

[Elm used a Poke Ball]

Elm then turn to me with the Poke Ball

"And that's how you do it," Elm said while putting the Poke Ball in his pocket

"Wow, thanks for teaching me professor," I said thanking him

"Oh, and that's not all here," Elm said pulling out more Poke Balls

[Tommy Received 25 Poke balls]

I put them in my Poke Ball Pocket

"Thank you, Professor," I said while he just laughed

"It's okay Tommy now good luck on the Gym Challenge and don't worry about giving up many kids give up against Whitney if I remember," Elm said while going back to his lab

I looked at my Pokémon with a smile

"So do any of you want to go back into your Poke Ball," I asked my Pokémon and Soteria went back in while Ares stayed out

"Well guys, let's go and become champions," I said with a confidence I forgot I had

I started to run through Route 29 without any encounters and ran past Cherry grove City and saw all the trainers stop battling, but I was some with their Poke Ball out which made me confused until Ares grabbed my hair and pointed me to a sign

[It's a Trainer Rule that when two Trainers eyes meet, a battle must begin]

So, I guess that's why they have their Poke Balls out, so I looked at Ares and then my Poke Ball that had Soteria

"Ready Guys," I said to my Pokémon Soteria ball shake while Ares yelled out with energy meaning that they were ready

"Alrighty Then let's go"

(What Tommy didn't know that he was healing)

Third-Person POV

As Soon as Tommy blew up the portal Tubbo can tell almost all of them were shocked at his speech and his actions but most of all he can tell Dream was pissed

Tubbo went to his communicator to see the achievement, but it never came "Uhh guys if Tommy went to the end why isn't the achievement popping up" he said, making everyone else get their communicators out and check the achievement tab only to find out Tommy didn't get the achievement

"So that means Tommy didn't go to the end meaning he's in some other dimension," Fundy said in a relieved tone making me mad

"And why do you sound, so thankful Fundy was supposed to capture him" Tubbo growled at Fundy, making Fundy step back

"Well I technically did my favor, so I'm out," Techno said, leaving with Philza behind him

"Oh no you don't Techno my favor was to capture him here in this world, and he isn't here, so your favor isn't done yet" Dream said angrily at the Piglin hybrid who just shrugged "Your favor was for me to join this little hunt not to capture my brother dream and I did just that I joined if you may have said that instead of joining the hunt then maybe I would have done that," Techno said angrily at Dream while Dream radiated a pissed off energy

Dream quickly left outside like a child throwing a fit

"So what do we do I say we should research a way to get Tommy back to avoid any war with the SMP" Tubbo said looking tired of everything

"I say we just leave him I mean he's not hurting you guys, and he is exiled, so he's not breaking any rules," Techno said uncaring like always

"What a good brother you are" Fundy whispered to himself

Techno was about to leave until Fundy gave his idea

"Did Un- Tommy have any friends besides Tubbo I think one of them would have told him" Fundy said making Phil and Techno think

"I uhh don't remember," Phil said scratching his head with a regretful look on his face

Techno stayed silent as if he were thinking about a whole war plan "If I can remember I think he had a half-demon friend named Eryn who was interested in 'worlds that we can reach by portals' he always knew about all the server things and dimension navigation type of stuff so him" Techno said making Tubbo look shocked knowing Tommy had another friend besides him

"So let me ask the question do we let Tommy stay in whatever world he is in," Phil said while crossing his arms like a parent looking disappointed in a child

"For once, I will agree with ... Techno statement to let him stay there, who knows he might be better there than with us," Fundy said.

"Eh if it benefits me to bring him here then I'll say whatever," Techno said uncaring at all the looks he got from the L'manburians

"I say we get him back I want to avoid wars and Tommy is causing one with Dream," Tubbo said

"I ... don't know what to do," Phil said sadly

"Aren't you supposed to be his Dad, don't you want him back?" Fundy said angrily.

"Yeah I'm his Dad but I ... never really saw him grow up, I just left to explore the world since his birth killed ... Kristin besides Techno is also his brother and he said if it benefits him, he will get him back so yeah and also Fundy he's your Uncle and you don't want him back so say that," Phil said shifting the blame to Fundy who just snarled.

"First of all Philza I didn't say I didn't want him back I just want him to be fucking happy, and let's not forget that you are also my Grandfather who is ignoring the fact that I'm also related to this shitty family, and also that fucking anarchist's pig is also my Uncle who didn't hesitate to beat my Uncle in a fucking pit, So sorry for putting my fucking priorities on my actual family member happiness just because your too stuck up your ass to see that my Grandma gave you another son that you left behind just because she couldn't handle another birth, God forbid the day you die just to only see her fucking disappointed face at the fact that she married a fucking coward," Fundy said directly at Phil's face making Phil look away with shame

"Ok Fox, you do-" Techno got cut off by Phil

"No he's right I'm a terrible father hell Techno you don't even call me Dad any more you call me a friend now I even killed Wilbur your twin and we both didn't grieve, We both destroy countries and cities for what anarchy no it's because of the voices I could have stopped by giving you a better solution than violence, And who knows what Wilbur did to him," Phil said accepting the fact he was an actual shit father while Techno stood silent

"I could have loved Tommy, and he could have turned out better but no, he got like that to get attention, so he doesn't feel alone I could have shown you and Wilbur how to love him

instead of whatever you guys have in your head about him" Phil continued on with a sad look as he looked to Fundy "Your right Fundy I think Tommy should stay there for his happiness," Phil said as he left the stronghold passing Dream who was listening in to the conversation next to a pillar

"What are you doing, Dream," Phil asked the masked man

"Listening in and hearing some drama, but I do know whom to invite next to this SMP soon" Dream said getting an invitation paper ready

"Just leave this shit alone mate whatever you're doing is unhealthy for you and Tommy just drop it because I'm not helping your plans," Phil said leaving him

Techno just stood silent at what Phil said, sure he never called him dad anymore, but that doesn't mean he doesn't consider him his father anymore (does it)

"I uhh if you find a way to open that portal I'll bring him back if you want," Techno said, following Phil back to the arctic

Tubbo just shook his head, feeling the massive headache he had

"Fundy let's go back to L'manburg and wait for what Dream would tell us," Tubbo said leaving as well

Fundy stared at the portal as he went slower to it, he touched the end frames and gave the smallest whisper "I hope wherever you are Uncle I hope you're happy" Fundy said as he got up and follow the goat hybrid

[The Distortion World Portal has weakened. It has now been closed, now let's go back to our Protagonist]

So, Tommy was in a ... predicament, so to say.

Listen, he wanted to challenge the gym, not to make a kid cry over beating his Rattata.

"Uhh kid are you okay" Tommy asked the kid "My name is Joey and no, I'm not you beat my super awesome Rattata" Joey cried out in anger.

So, the kid is crying because he lost Tommy thought "Okay kid I may have been a trainer for about a day but don't cry over losing that just means you learn defeat, and you will use that to motivate yourself on winning" Tommy said giving advice to the kid while his sniffles was calming down, and he looked a bit happier.

"Ok thanks Mister" Joey said, leaving with his Rattata.

"Cynda" Ares said, making Tommy look at him "What's wrong Ares" Tommy said worryingly, but it seems it wasn't bad since Ares just wanted to continue on.

We passed all the trainers who we defeated or were normal people who just said hi and we step into a new town called Violet City where the official Pokémon Challenger Guide Book™ says it has the gym of Falkner the flying type specialist.

Flying type huh reminds me of Phil I thought as I shook the thought out of my head I went to the Pokémon Center to heal Ares and Soteria

[Pokémon]

[Ares LV 7 ♂]

Soteria LV 5 ♂]

I may have a small team but can I beat Falkner I thought my anxiety getting to me, I couldn't help it all I remember was Dream saying I was useless and a waste of space I mean my family certainly thought of it when they left me and Wilbur just so he can abuse me

But what about Fundy a small voice in my head said, and honestly, I think about Fundy a lot I may say I have a horrible life but Fundy he has an Uncle who is 'younger' than him and another Uncle who hears voices to kill and a Grandfather who never bother talking or asking about him

I may have been in his life playing outside making sandcastles cakes and everything but does he rea- Nurse Joy pulled me out of my thoughts "Here's your Pokémon I hope you come again" Joy said as she went to help the trainer behind me

I left the Pokémon Center and went to the gym, only for a Random man to stop me

"Oh Sorry kid I'm new to this region I'm from Galar" The Man says "Oh it's nothing I'm was not paying attention" I said as the man laughed at this accident "so where you're heading" The Man says "The Gym" I said as I walked closer to it with him behind me "Hmm Hey kid if you beat Falkner I can give you this Pokémon I got from an egg he doesn't obey me, so maybe he will for you" The Man says making me feel weirded out, but I nodded as I head to the gym

As I went to the Gym, I saw a picture of the Gym Leader and I felt myself having a Freaking Breakdown

Falkner looks like Phil

Sure, Falkner has Blue hair and a shorter yakuta, but that doesn't mean it's not the same as Phil

My breath started to get faster I swear I couldn't breathe as I fell to the floor but how can I stop Phil is here how can I breathe that mean left me alone with my Brother

"Cyn Cyndaquil" Ares started to shake until a sound of a PokeBall open "Vee Eevee" Soteria said jumping on my lap "Vee" Soteria said as he put his paw on my heart "Eevee" "Cyndaquil" Both of them said calming my breathing

I took a deep breath and stared at them "Thanks guys, I hope you guys didn't mind that" I said, making them just hug me

"Okay I get it I matter but come on let's go beat Falkner!" I said with reassure confidence.

So, I walked to the gym, and it was very well-designed to his theme several trees, a bunch of birds like Pokémon, no ceiling

(A/N I am making my own gym look not following the games since 1.it will be a bitch to write the puzzles and 2. I haven't watched the anime, so yeah don't kill me please)

I walked to some people who were talking that seemed that were helpers in the gym seeing their bird caretaker looks "Hey do you guys know where Falkner is I'm here to challenge him" I said making the two people look at each other with a little oh boy look

"Yeah Falkner is right here at the back of this Gym follow us" The Guy said showing me the way where Falkner is

I follow him to see Falkner in a podium waiting with his arms cross

"Hello newcomer I am Falkner the Flying Type Specialist and Gym Leader in Violet City. Are you here to battle?" Falkner said but to me, he sounds like a robot, "Are you a Robot?" I said, making him laugh, "No it's something the League makes us say first every time. So do you want to battle?" Falkner says

"... Yes" I said still weirded out by him "Okay follow me to the stage" Falkner said making me follow him.

We walked for a few minutes until we saw a small stadium, it reminds me of one Techno would go too for his tournaments Wilbur and I usually see when we miss him

"Alright you go to that end, and I'll go too that one" Falkner said pointing me to my side

As we both walked to our side, I heard an announcer or referee as he was wearing a black and white striped shirt

"Contestant,, please state your name and amount of Pokémon you have!" The ref said.

"Tommy, Innit and I have 2 Pokémon!" I yelled.

"Trainer Tommy Innit and Gym Leader Falkner will both use 2 Pokémon the battle will end when both Pokémon are either unable to battle or In case of accident sent to Pokémon Center Battle Begin!" The Ref said.

[Gym Leader Falkner wants to battle]

"Go! Pidgey!" Falker said sending out a Pidgey

"Okay Ares! I Choose You!" I said as Ares ran to the stadium.

"Pidgey use Sand Attack!" Falkner Commanded.

The Pidgey used his wings to blind Ares eyes with dirt

[Ares Accuracy Fell]

"Ares use Leer!" I said, making Ares stare at the Pidgey menacingly.

[Pidgey Defense Fell]

"Pidgey use Tackle!" Falkner said.

"Dodge its Ares and retaliate using Tackle!" I said quickly.

[Ares got a Critical Hit]

Ares jumped out of the way and hit Pidgey on his back The Pidgey hit the wall but is still standing albeit weakly

"Pidgey can you still fight" Falkner yelled

Pidgey stood there shaking from the pain until he fell down

[Pidgey Fainted]

[Ares Level Up to Level 8]

[Soteria Level Up to Level 6]

(A/N yes I'm using the XP share logic I'm not writing old generation XP grinding because that will make this more hell)

"Pidgey return! Go Pigeotto" Falkner said as he sent out a Pidgeotto

I get my Pokédex to see what the heck that is

"Pidgeotto the bird like Pokémon a Flying Type and the Evolve Form of Pidgey as he evolves from him at Level 15" The Pokédex provided

I looked at him with Fear knowing my Pokémon might be a bit weak, but I shook it down knowing we can still win

"ARES USE SMOKE SCREEN!" I yelled out making Ares run at him, successfully hitting the Pidgeotto in the eyes.

[Pidgeotto Accuracy Fell]

"GREAT NOW LEER!" I said trying to make his defense weak as I can.

[Pidgeotto Defense Fell]

"Pidgeotto use Tackle!" Falkner Commanded, but his Pokémon missed.

"USE LEER AGAIN!" I yelled, making Ares repeat a move.

[Pidgeotto Defense Fell]

"Pidgeotto use Sand Attack!" Falkner said aggravated but also excited?

"Ares come back!" I said makes Ares run next to me.

"Go! Soteria!" I said throwing up the Poke Ball sending Soteria out.

"Pidgeotto Use Gust!" Falkner said while Pidgeotto started to use his wings, causing two mini tornados to go to Soteria

"Soteria Dodge it and use Tackle!" I yelled as fast as I can.

Soteria manage to dodge the tornados but as he went for a Tackle Pidgeotto flew up causing Soteria to miss

"Use Gust Again!" Falkner repeated the command.

"Soteria use the wind to go up to him and use Tackle!" Tommy said making Falkner stun at the command.

Soteria went straight to the tornado and flew up near Pidgeotto and tackle him straight in the head

[Soteria got a Critical Hit]

[Ares Level Up to Level 9]

Soteria Level Up to Level 7]

[You gained ₱1560]

"Return Pidgeotto!" Falkner said as he sent his Pokémon back to his ball.

"Tommy, I won't lie, that is the first I've seen someone use that strategy in a battle. Your kid are a very weird trainer who thinks outside the box" Falkner said praising

"Thanks Falkner, It was just pure ... will of not losing" I said not sure on how to word it

"Well in any case I lost so here is your gym badge the Zephyr Badge" Falkner said giving me a blue feather like metal badge

I grabbed, and I felt proud but later noticed I have nowhere to put it in

"We also have to give you this a badge case to ensure your badges are safe" Falkner said giving a flat like case

"And this is more of a thing all of us gym leaders do, but we like to give trainers something called a T. M called a Technical Machine it helps Pokémon learn new moves" Falkner said also handing out a disk like object.

"That is T. M 51 for Roost, a Flying Type support attack that makes the Pokémon branch and recover their HP" Falkner explains.

I put my T. M in my T. M Bag along with my case I put in with my Trainer Card next to my Special Bag.

"Thanks Falkner" I said while leaving the Gym

"No Problem Tommy I have confidence you will become the next Champion somehow" Falkner said while laughing it sounded a lot like Phil but more joyful more pride it was like he was rooting for me

I left the Gym with a smile until the Old Man stop me

"Oh Kid did you win" The Old Man said

I took the badge out and showed it to him with pride

"Congrats here's this Pokémon I said" The Old Man said giving me a Crow Like Pokémon

"That is a Rookidee he's a common Pokémon in the Galar region we use them for the kiddos to help them learn about the basics on taking care of them" he said while giving me his Poke Ball

The Rookidee look at me as if he was sensing something powerful from me and look impressed I will never understand Pokémon and their logic

"Kidee" The Rookidee said proudly "Oh well it seems he likes you want to name him" The Old Man said

I thought about a name that would fit him but all I thought was Phil and this Crow like Pokémon, so I guess I still love Phil like a dad

"Crowza"

[Rookidee name was Change to Crowza]

"Well that's a weird name kid, but I'm not one to judge" The Old Man said before looking at his poke gear and saw the time "Oh boi look at the time I have to go back to my Hotel Room" The Old Man said as he left

I look at Crowza Soteria and Ares together they all seemed to be getting along

Maybe this World was what I needed

While leaving Violet City, Tommy was wondering if he was weak (mostly because he had a hard time fighting Falkner Pidgeotto, if he hadn't weakened him he would have lost) so he started to train all of his Pokémon

"Alright then guys I think it's time to train" Tommy said while all of his Pokémon line up

"Now we're going to do basic training running or well in Crowza case flying, Swimming, And battling" Tommy said as he whistle at them

They began by doing simple laps up and down the route, later they began swimming at the small pond they found at the route

(A/N They are still in Route 29 since if I remember there was a pond there please correct me)

Then they started to fight the wild Pokémon of that route until the sun started to go down

"Okay guys I think we should go to the Pokémon Center and spend the night we trained all day" Tommy said as all the Pokémon agree

They went back to Violet City and went to the Pokémon Center Hotel Rooms and started to get ready for sleep until Tommy noticed something

"Well what do I change to I only have these clothes" Tommy said as he was facing his dilemma

"Oh the PokeMart should have clothes" Tommy remembered as he grabbed his PokeBalls and Ares who was half asleep and went to the PokeMart

As Tommy was looking at the cloth section finding some pajamas and some outfits he thought looked nice, there was some trouble happening in the Pokémon Center

But Tommy wasn't aware of that as was in the PokeMart buying pajamas as that was the only thing he can afford and left as he saw the Pokémon Center with Officer Penny and Nurse Joy outside talking

"Hello Officer Jenny and Nurse Joy what's wrong" Tommy asked worried something happened to one of them

"Hello kid the problem is that some Rocket Grunt went to steal some Trainer's Pokémon while they were asleep" Jenny said while writing down some clues, but Tommy saw that she doesn't remember him

"Jenny do you remember me at Elm lab" Tommy said a bit worried to Jenny

"Oh you must have seen my Great Cousin Jenny she was on patrol for that day I can believe some people mistake us for each other we look nothing alike" Jenny said laughing at that detail

Tommy just blue screen as he was just trying to process what was just said

"Tommy let Jenny do her work, and you can go to sleep the Team Rocket person has left" Joy said as she pet my head

"Ok" Tommy said as he went back inside and went to my Room his opened my Pokémon Menu to see how strong we've gotten after Training

[Ares ♂ LV 16

Soteria ♂ LV 14

Crowza ♂ LV 10]

Tommy just closed the menu satisfied at the results of his training and went to bed with the thoughts of the next gym he goes

Tommy woke up to the sun hitting him in the face very brightly

He woke up already planning on killing the sun just because he wanted 5 more minutes of sleep as he got up from his bed

"Alright then let's start this day off at least decent" Tommy said as he went to the bathroom and changed his pj's to his trainer outfit

He left the bathroom only to see Ares almost falling off the bed while his other Pokémon were fast asleep in their PokeBalls

Tommy yawned as he picks Ares up and put his PokeBalls near his belt leaving his backpack behind he went to the dining hall for breakfast

As he went down, he saw all the trainers giving their Pokémon food or some being outside training with other trainers

Tommy went to the chef and picked up his food which was apparently called malasadas from a region called Alola which he thought it tasted nice, and he let his Pokémon eat their food while he ate his food

As they were eating Tommy noticed some Trainers not having their Pokémon out and instead are being sad or crying he saw one of the trainers actually sitting next to him so decided to ask

"Hey mate what's going on" Tommy asked the Trainer "Team Rocket stole my Pokémon I thought after years of them being radio silent I thought I would have a shot of being champion, but it looks like the moment I do be a trainer they started back up again" The trainer said as he went in tears

Tommy just put his plate back and returned all of his Pokémon back inside the balls and grabbed Ares and went to his Room

He grabbed his backpack and made sure to check it to not leave anything behind, he left the Pokémon Center feeling rather nervous from what that trainer said

If this Team Rocket steal Pokémon would they go after me, Tommy thought as he left Violet City and enter a new Route called Route 32

He just hopes he doesn't have to deal with them

The new Route was just straightforward as pretty much it was straight path nothing difficult about it

As he continues to walk to the next city he noticed a giant cave and next to the cave entrance he saw a sign that read go through the Union Cave to go to Azalea Town it read Tommy just let out a breath of tiredness as he looked at Ares who asleep inside his backpack just hope the cave isn't complicated to navigate as he went inside the Union Cave

He was so severely wrong it was dark as heck (Y'know his missed swearing, he hates that this world forces him to be PG+13)

Ares woken up after a few Zubats he encountered by running at one (Ares actually woke up because Tommy scream after one almost but him)

So, Ares led the way, his back ignited by his flames

As they walked Tommy was just looking at Ares like a kid who found a pet that they love except to Tommy he saw Ares as himself they younger version of him who fought in a war for his brother but here he saw someone who will stand by him in anything

And that made Tommy feel relaxed, sure now he knows this world has some evil by mostly he's been treated with more kindness than his world

And he will take it because he knows he deserves better

As they saw a light in the cave, Tommy and Ares knew that they are almost free, so they started running to a new Gym Challenge Together

As Tommy left the cave he saw the clear path to Azalea Town, but there were some people in black clothing with a big red R blocking some paths, making Tommy confused

As Tommy went to the man near the well to see what is wrong he pushed him away "Back of Twerp Team Rocket's business only" The Grunt said, making Tommy scared of what happened as he found the Team who stole the kid's Pokémon from the Pokémon Center

So, Tommy quickly left to the town hopefully to avoid any violence

As Tommy walked through the Town he saw and the Rocket Grunts just blocking pathways houses exits heck even the Gym

As Tommy got tired of walking, he sat at a bench near some house and Ares quickly went to his lap to sleep from just trying to hide from Team Rocket

As they both were relaxing an Old Man sat next to him watching Tommy as if he were studying him Tommy quickly grew nervous, so he asked "Hey mate what's going on" Tommy said trying to start a nice conversation with the Man "Name's Kurt kid by the looks of it you're a Trainer so can I ask you for some help" The man named Kurt asked

"What do you need" Tommy said nervously "Team Rocket are basically kidnapping all the slowpokes hear in this Town and keeping them hostage, so I need your help to go to the well and freeing them" Kurt said looking at Tommy with anger and motivation

Tommy thought about it and decided "Sure lead the way" Tommy said as he grabbed Ares from the bench

Kurt smiled and led Tommy to the well only for Tommy to see the same Grunt guy who shoved him away from earlier was there blocking their way

"Get out of here you two, this is Team Rocket business unless you two want to get hurt" The Grunt said pulling out a PokeBall

"Bah we don't have time for this" Kurt said as he quickly ran past Grunt, causing him to hit the well and pass out? Weak Tommy thought.

Tommy follow Kurt to the well to see it was a more brightly lit up cave than the one he had to go through before he grabbed Ares PokeBall thinking something bad will happen here

"Ares return" Tommy said making Ares go back to his Poke Ball for safety as he switched Ares Poke Ball to Crowza's Poke Ball"Alright then let's go" Tommy said with barely any confidence as he went through the cave with Crowza PokeBall in hand

As he kept going through the cave he saw almost every Rocket member defeated out of nowhere (actually he defeated them they just kept using supersonic and just kept hitting themselves)

So as Tommy reached the end of the cave he saw a man with blue hair and countless Slowpokes around the area and a blue fox or wolf, maybe a dog? Like Pokémon with a bracelet with a stone inside, it was injured and badly beaten.

"You're only here is because of this useless stone mutt" The Grunt said angrily at the Pokémon who was almost in tears

Tommy was angry at the man yelling at the poor Pokémon, so Tommy switch Crowza's Poke Ball to Ares and said a quiet command "Ares use Ember" as he threw the Poke Ball

As Ares got released, he immediately shot out a flame to the man while Tommy went to the injured Pokémon giving him Potions and bandages to heal his wounds, "How dare you hurt this Pokémon he did nothing to you!" Tommy yelled at the Grunt while he laughed at Tommy, while also putting out whatever flame that was left in his uniform.

"That Pokémon is useless and useless Pokémon just mean it's easy replaced" The Grunt said while taking his PokeBall out

"Ares, get in position!" Tommy yelled as Ares jumped in front of him and the injured Pokémon.

[Rocket Executive Proton challenge you to a Battle]

"Go! Zubat" Proton said, throwing his PokeBall.

"Ares! Use Ember!" Tommy commanded as Ares spit out another small flame at the Zubat

"Dodge and use supersonic" Proton commanded

The Zubat tried hypnotizing Ares, but Ares just kept running around in circles, making Zubat just shoot out its hypnosis waves randomly

"Ares jump and use Quick Attack!" Tommy said quickly defeating the Zubat due to his training.

"Go! Koffing" Proton sent out a purple like mine that's letting out green smoke.

"Listen kid Team Rocket is trying to go back to its prime before that one damn Red Hat wearing punk ruined it for us so" Proton stayed quiet, and he smirked with an evil face expressing that he had a horrible plan and said something quietly to his Koffing

"Kid, either you let this go or we kill the Riolu" the man said as the Koffing got closer to me and the injured Pokémon that I now know is named Riolu

"Better, yet maybe I should kill both of you that will definitely make things easier" Proton said almost cracking up in whatever sick joke he made in his head

Tommy, however, went quiet only with his thoughts and his heartbeat were the only things he could hear

Kill

War

Fight

Survive

SURVIVE

A voice keeps chanting inside Tommy head yearning to live to keep going to survive and Tommy wasn't going to let this old blue hair punk let him ruin his life

Tommy got up, but his Heartbeat kept getting louder and louder enough to the point where Tommy covers his ears, but it's not helping until he noticed it's not his

Tommy looked around to see where the sound was coming from, and he saw the sound was coming from Ares who was staring at him

"Ares" Tommy said before a flash of blue light envelope Ares whole body

Ares body changing to be larger than his flames change to different parts of his body only for the light to end he saw Ares in a new form

"Quilava!" Ares said as a roar while Tommy was in awe of Ares new form.

Tommy Pokédex seemed to provide something as it gave Tommy a notification, so Tommy grabbed it and listened to what the Pokédex said

[This is Quilava and the evolved form of Cyndaquil This Pokémon is fully covered by nonflammable fur. It can withstand any kind of fire attack.]

[Ares wants to learn Flame Wheel what move should he forget]

>Ember

[. . . Ares forgot Ember and learned Flame Wheel]

"Ares use Flame Wheel on Proton" Tommy commanded

"Qui" Ares yelled as he started to charge at proton fire enveloping his body like a wheel

"Wait no Koffing help Me!" Proton said as Koffing went in front of him to protect his trainer Ares didn't stop as his attack ended up hurting both of them making them unconscious but Proton Dropped something.

Tommy went to the weird rainbow like stone a put it in his pocket he got up and left Proton alone to check up on the Riolu "Hey little guy are you okay" Tommy said checking the Riolu wounds

The Riolu was just surprised by the trainer's aura he radiated one like a sun, a bright sun that's for protecting

"It doesn't seem to be infected so how about you get out of here mate, so they don't catch you again" Tommy said but the Riolu shook his head and pointed at his PokeBall

Tommy looked at his Poke Ball and got the hint "Want to join my team" Tommy offered "Ri Rio!" Riolu cheered happily as he punched the PokeBall making the energy beam to trap him inside.

Shake...

Shake...

Shake...

[Riolu was successfully caught]

Tommy let Riolu rest inside the Poke Ball as he tried coming up for a name

"Kid you here!" The voice of Kurt echoes through the cave, "Yeah! Kurt, I save the slowpokes!" Tommy yelled back "Great job Kid" Kurt said as his figure appearing from the shadows.

"Here use this escape rope, and I'll take the Slowpokes home" Kurt said while giving me the escape rope "Alright"

[Tommy used the Escape Rope]

As soon as Tommy left the cave, he saw all the slowpokes that were in the well were outside that fast Tommy thought

"Kid" Kurt said going up to me "Hey Kurt what's wrong" Tommy asked "Nothing kid was just going to tell you thanks for helping out the Slowpokes" Kurt said thankfully while looking at the Slowpoke falling the river

Tommy was going to leave until he remembered the rainbow like stone "Hey Keith do you know anything about this" Tommy said getting the stone out of his pocket making Kurt make a face of familiarity he grabbed it and inspected it and remembered when he saw it

"This is a Key Stone Kid, it helps Pokémon Mega Evolve" Kurt said while admiring the Key Stone "Mega Evolve?" Tommy asked, confused "Mega Evolution is making your Pokemon go beyond its limits evolving pass its original form the only way Pokémon can Mega Evolve if both the Trainer and Pokémon hearts and Soul combine as one" Kurt said while getting an idea with the stone.

"If you want I can make something to hold your Key Stone as a base, so you can use it" Kurt offered, "Sure!" Tommy said, letting Kurt have the Key Stone.

"I'll make the bracelet, it should take about a day for me to make it, so I can probably give it to you tomorrow morning" Kurt said, already starting to leave Tommy, however stopped him "Wait!" Tommy yelled stopping Kurt.

"Can you make it an earring" Tommy said hesitantly while Kurt just stood there surprised but asked "Sure any reason why" Kurt asked

Tommy just stood there in silence I don't know he thought, but he knows why Emeralds were precious in his family he would have gotten one if his Father actually stayed and took care of him, and they would have done it like Normal but now

"Sentimental Reasons" Tommy said trying to get his thoughts right Kurt just shrugged "Sure kid I'll see you at the Pokémon Center in the Morning" Kurt said as he left to his house

Tommy just started going to the Pokémon Center and went to the Hotel Room

As he went to his Room he changed to some pajamas and let his Pokémon out their Poke Balls, so they can sleep or stay up and Tommy went to the Riolu

"So Riolu guess I have to name you as well" Tommy said tiredly from the whole day "Lu" Riolu spoke as if he's saying he's okay with any name

"How about Mars is I remember it was one of the god's sons who was a god of war" Tommy said "Rio Riolu" The Riolu seemed to like the name Mars

"Alright then Mars welcome to the Team" Tommy said as he was falling asleep "Goodnight all of you don't stay up late" Tommy said before going to sleep thinking about the next gym he had to face

As we all know Techno has died I did sent a tweet on my thoughts but if any of you guys are thinking what am I going to do with my writing

I came to a conclusion

I will still be writing Technoblade either Main or Side character

This was very hard for me to think about, but I decided what to do

I want to carry Techno name, so the new generation know of a man of hilarious humor and a Man who was the one who made God hesitate

I know Techno will probably call me a Nerd for giving everything that I made and ending it, so I will continue making stories maybe one with him as a Superhero, A King, or an Overprotective Older Brother

Thank You Guys for being Patient and I hope you all can get past this time

And Remember Techno is already taking over the kingdom of the gods – LD

When Tommy woke up, he was feeling dread

This normally would mean something bad will happen

But what it's been perfectly normal he's not in the SMP he's in Johto or whatever this universe is called, and he's fine

Tommy looked around and saw his Pokémon all sleeping together in a cuddle pile while Mars was more by himself like a lone wolf

Tommy smiled he just needs to get used to them to be friends he thought as he got up to stretch, hearing the satisfying crack of his bones as he left to the cafeteria of the Pokémon Center

Tommy saw some chicken tender and pancakes, and he chooses the tender because he likes that more than pancakes and a ton of Pokémon Food for the expansion of his Team

He went to his room and pour the food in bowls and placed his tenders on the table and started eating while his Pokémon started to wake up from their sleep

As Tommy ate, he looked at his bag to see what he had

[Bag]

[Potions x14

Poke Balls x20

Revives x 3]

Pretty much decent stuff as he ate the feeling became worse, but he still doesn't know what that means he opted to ignore it maybe it was Team Rocket again

As Tommy finished eating, he threw his paper plate in the trash as his Pokémon continues to eat, Tommy decided to see what was interesting today as he opened his Poke Gear

“New Shopping Center-” skip “Ultra Wormholes in Mele-” skip “Bugsy is back at the Gym in Azalea Town, so Gym Trainer Come on by”

That caught his interest, but first Tommy should visit Kurt first for the stone earring he made for him “Alright guys let's go see Kurt” Tommy said getting his Poke Balls and returning everyone back inside them except Ares

“Come on Ares, let's see Kurt” as they both walked away from the room and Pokémon Center to Kurt's House

As Tommy and Ares both walked to Kurt house that bad feeling Tommy had has grown worst, but Tommy managed as he knocked on Kurt's door

“Hey Kurt I'm here” Tommy said as the door opened to show the old man with a rainbow stone connected to an earring with also a Rookadie feather with it near the stone (kind of like Techno's and Dadza earring except they have a white feather)

“Thank You, Kurt” Tommy said as he put the earring on him also thankful his ear didn't close while in exile and the whole journey

“No Problem kid thanks for saving the Slowpokes as well in fact in made you some special poke balls” Kurt said bringing out two bags of Poke Balls “I had the help with someone gathering the materials for these special poke balls in this bag” Kurt said giving Tommy the first bag Tommy opened it was a bag with a blue design with yellow on it “That's the quick ball the start of the turn this Poke Ball can make it easier to catch a Pokémon” Kurt said as he gave Tommy the other bag “And these are the Time ball the longer the battle goes the easier the Pokémon will be able to catch” Kurt said while Tommy got a Poke Ball with a clock on it pretty lazy design he thought until he remembers Bugsy was at his gym “Thanks Kurt, for the earrings and the Extra Poke balls but I gotta go to the gym see ya” Tommy said at a quick hurry forgetting to close the door itself while Ares just chased after him

Kurt closed the door and sat down “heh” I can tell he's going to be a great trainer one day

Now when Tommy when to Buggy he thought he would be challenging, difficult, all around very hard

But he's a big type specialist and Ares wiped the floor of all his Pokémon which made him very disappointing like Scyther looked really cool, but he was weak

Not to mention, he also only had a Kakuna and Metapod

But overall, he was easy as he thanked Buggy for the badge and left the Gym now already going to the next Route only to be stopped by him

Larry

“. . . Hey tell me something” Larry said, his face with confusion and hope? “Is it true Team Rocket has returned?” Larry said, "Yeah uhh I defeated their grunts not too long ago well actually yesterday I mean” Tommy said already feeling like a battle is starting.

“What? You beat them? Hah! Quit lying” Larry said pulling out a Poke Ball “Are you Serious? Then I guess I have to see how good you are” Larry said as he threw his Poke Ball out.

[PKMN Trainer Larry wants to Battle]

“Go! Gastly!” Larry yells out throwing his Pokémon showing a ball with smoke with a comically big eyes and mouth.

Tommy thought whom to send out he knows Ghost types aren't affected by normal and fighting type attacks so that rules out Soteria and Ares is pretty tired after Buggy but Crowza was a big maybe picture Mars was pretty new he wanted to avoid sending him head first to a battle

[Pokémon]

Ares ♂ LV19

Soteria ♂ LV17

Mars ♂ LV11

Crowza ♂ LV15

Okay, how come all his Pokémon are dudes second Crowza seems to have Peck, so he can do damage

“GO! CROWZA!” Tommy said as he threw his Poke Ball out, letting his Rookidee out.

“Use Peck!” Tommy commanded as Crowza out speed the ball of gas.

It was a direct hit on the eye leaving the ghastly to faint early Larry had a pissed expression as he grabbed another Poke Ball

“GO!CROCONAW!” Larry said sending out a huge blue crocodile, I guess his totodile evolved Tommy thought.

“Return Crowza!” Tommy said as the Red energy beam made Crowza go back inside the Poke Ball “Go! Ares!” Tommy said as Ares ran to the field.

“USE!” Both trainers yelled “BITE!”“TACKLE” Both of they yelled out different moves, but their Pokémon rushed in already locked in Combat.

Both trainers stood silent, not giving any commands as if their Pokémon already knew the commands they were going to say

Flame Charge, Bite,Tackle, Growl,Leer, Bubble a repeat of moves in their Psyche repeats until Croconaw went down while Ares could barely stand

While Larry was at his final “Go! Zubat!” Larry yelled out weakly as a Zubat came out.

“Ares! Return!” Tommy said as Ares walked back to him and returned to the Poke Ball in his own will, Tommy grabbed his Poke balls to choose his next member to use for battle.

As he chose he noticed the moon glowing brightly as it was full, he knew whom to use “Go! Soteria!” Tommy yelled with determination as Soteria came out ready for action.

As Soteria came out of his Poke Ball his white fur sparkled along with the Moon

“Soteria! Use Tackle on Zubat” Tommy said as Soteria ran headfirst to Zubat missing by Zubat flying higher.

“Use Confuse Ray” Larry commanded as followed Zubat used a small light and hit Soteria making him confused

“Soteria use Growl” Tommy commanded but Soteria just walked a little and hit his head on the floor hurting himself

Larry laughed while Tommy was worried was this going to be my first loss he thought until Soteria started to growl and yell straight toward the moon

Both Tommy and Larry got confused until a blue light envelope Soteria as he still howled at the moon, Tommy looked up and saw that the moon was glowing brightly

As Tommy saw Soteria he changes his white fur changed into black fur with Blue Rings on his tail and ears and one on his head

[Congratulations, you Soteria evolved into an Umbreon]

[Soteria is Trying to Learn Pursuit, what move will you forget?]

[>Helping Hand]

[... Move Forgotten Soteria learned Pursuit]

Tommy smirk showing his teeth, he got confident that he and Soteria got this “Use! Pursuit!” Tommy yelled as Soteria did that and won by one hit!

[You got 1182P]

“Hey, no fair you only won because your Pokémon Evolved mid-battle!” Larry yelled while leaving, Tommy just let out a huff while going to pet Soteria

“Thanks mate, I didn't know what to do without you” Tommy said as Soteria return to his Poke Ball Tommy look up and saw how late it is guess I should go to bed in the Poke center here I guess

Tubbo sat in his office signing and rejecting paperwork ever since Tommy left and the Compass Ghostbur gave him hasn't stopped spinning in circles

Fundy was also in the office, but he had a photo book filled with mostly photos of him and Tommy, but Tubbo didn't care (he did. He wants to see how young Tommy looks he wants to see his best friend again, but he has to be a present first)

“Fundy if you're just being sentimental leave my office” Tubbo said as his voice sounded unused and rough, maybe because Tubbo hasn't talked or drank water after Tommy little escape

“Fuck you Toby” Fundy closed the door rough, making Tubbo sigh as he picked up that broken compass

He stared at it, letting it spin before putting it back and grabbing a new paper

The Arctic never felt as cold before until now

Maybe because Techno saw his little brother (can be even call him that?) in such a state, or maybe he saw how he threw away Kristin's beloved discs

Techno remembered how Kristin got them, his Mother got them in a good deal and always played them when she was Cooking or Dancing

Her Dancing was always Beautiful she taught Tommy, Wilbur and Himself but even then, Techno barely saw his mother

His voices came early in his years

Phil and Techno had to go to protect everyone but only to find out because he wasn't in the Nether for a good bit of his childhood Techno was cursed with the voices forever

And when they came back Kristin apparently died by a Raid, so they've been told by their village, but they were not permitted to see her grave only Tommy and Wilbur did, but they left somewhere new

Techno always wanted to at least send a letter, but Phil always said it's better not to

Techno looked at Phil who himself was sitting in a trance he looked in every way dead

Phil's Dark Blue eyes have turned Grey his Hair now looks stale, maybe losing his Twin and Younger brother are finally getting to him

Techno can't seem to feel sympathy for his ~~Father~~

Friend he has no clue why ~~He does he just doesn't want to say it~~

Power was the order of the world

Dream learned that in a very young age seeing his Mother Puffy fight someone who was in a very high position I'm something he doesn't remember

But Dream knew that power gave respect and fear, and he craved it

And he did everyone soon bent their will to him only very few fought, but they were now gone

Schlatt was unpredictability but his selfishness and arrogance was his cause of death then there was Wilbur who's very own Mental health did him

Sure helped him spiral, but it was necessary to get rid of L'manburg but even seeing that lunatic pushing the obvious away was hilarious seeing Tommy trying to make him know he's still with him and hasn't leaves his side

If he were saner, he would've probably stopped everything

Then there was Tommy

He was the only one who disobeyed him and his power even breaking his mind was a challenge because there was always something reigniting inside him, and he always rebelled against him

A fighter who even the gods had interest in

And now this predicament happened

The one rule Dream enforced heavily was broken but also wasn't

Normally, if someone accesses the end with the code he put up long before Tommy joined he would die on the spot, but he didn't, so he's in a different dimension just not theirs

Dream got out a list of application for and saw someone interesting

Eryn Stream

Now normally he would reject this offer mostly due to them not being interesting enough, but he had a few things that caught his eye

That being he had a picture with Tommy next to him and his status said Student Dimension Researcher

Maybe the SMP can use someone like him as Dream put the paper in a bold green wax

APPROVED

Dream picked up parts of the broken item Tommy used and smiled

His toy will be back soon

**** ****

Phil was practically a zombie he already had to face the decline of his family being broken by his mistakes but now his youngest was gone

Phil knew it was in many ways his fault in his mind items can be replaced they don't hold real value, but he now knows why those disks were so special

Kristin, he's beloved must be so ashamed in him would she even still be with him for all he did

He knew he played favorites ever since they left to try to cure Techno all those adventures all those kingdoms was fun worth losing a family

Wilbur was so bright, but he died by his hands he had a son who now doesn't want to even talk to Phil or Techno and Tommy ran away to somewhere they didn't know

And Techno does he even see him as a father he always just calls him a friend never Father never Dad

Maybe this is his punishment for being too incompetent as a father for not knowing how to give his love equally and how other hybrids have needs

Phil paused his thoughts after his communicator ringed

Dream: We have someone joining us soon that knows how to make the portal Tommy did, so we are having a meeting

Dream: Phil, Techno, Tubbo, Fundy, Quackity, Ranboo I expect to see you all in the community house

Phil was tired as he saw Techno enter his room “Hey Phil you got the message?” Techno asks his voice sounded tired “Yeah let's go” Phil left his chair and stretch hearing his back pop from doing nothing.

“Let's just hope this isn't dreadful”

Fundy came to the meeting already thinking of much bullshit that is going to happen

After Tubbo emotional decline he knew there's a high chance someone is going to get Tommy for him to die and Fundy was terrified of what Dream will tell them

Everyone sat in the community room Quackity was just staring daggers into Techno while Techno himself was just staring at Dream waiting for the conversation to begin

“Okay, so I found a person who knows how portals and dimensions work” Dream told everyone as they stood silent waiting for him to continue “So I am going to say this once, one of us will have to get him” everyone just looked at each other with fear

“Quackity is not going incase L'manburg needs someone to help govern them” Tubbo said immediately making Quackity grumble “Phil isn't going mostly because who knows what will happen to him, he's old and he's in one life” Techno gave a reasoning so Dream stared at everyone

“I can't go if I do then this SMP will get deleted because I can't be here to manage it even Callahan can't do everything himself” “And Ranboo can't go because of his memory issues” Tubbo added, making Ranboo wince a bit at that comment

So, that leaves Tubbo, Fundy and Techno Dream thought

“Okay I think I made a choice on whose going between Tubbo, Fundy and Techno” All three of them looked nervous

“I think-”

“— Fundy would be the obvious choice to go” Dream said making everyone raise their eyebrow “Wait why me!?” Fundy yelled “Simple you expendable” Dream said leaving the meeting until “And Fundy don't do something you're going to regret will talk Tomorrow” and Dream fully left.

Fundy looked at Tubbo and Quackity but themselves didn't argue, but they looked stressed Fundy didn't really care how Phil and Techno were doing, so he just left the Community House and went to his home

Fundy changed in some pajamas and laid in his bed eye bags present he sighed and looked at an old photo he had on his nightstand that was Tommy holding a smaller version of Himself Fundy remember that if only it could last longer, he thought before sleep took over

Going through the Illex Forest Tommy battled some Pokémon ate a sandwich and camp for the night and occasionally finding some interesting radio stations was pretty entertained

Until Tommy left the forest for the next Gym in Goldenrod City, Tommy started to feel even more uneasy, maybe because of the Gym? But he never felt this amount of uneasy.

Tommy quickly put that to side and went to the Pokémon Center letting his Pokémon heal before the next Gym, but he opted to explore for a bit

He found a bike store and got a free bike in a blue color which was nice and found a Mall and a radio station Tommy thought nothing of it until he saw some members there in black clothing with a big red R

Team Rocket

Tommy sighed questioning to ignoring them but intimately decided to get some answer's taking Crowza's Poke Ball out and sighed while going inside the building

Inside he saw a Grunt guarding the stairs Tommy opted to be lazy and disguised himself as a grunt finding a bin of clothes with the Red R and went to the Grunt

“Hello I'm new here, and I've been told to come to the top” Tommy said casually the Grunt looked relieved “oh sure” As the Grunt moved aside Larry walked in and saw what was happening

“Hey, what are you doing here and wearing those clothes you think you're strong enough to wear them” By some random Magic Tommy clothes changed to the Rocket Uniform to his normal Clothes and the Grunt noticed and looked pissed

“Hey! You're not a newcomer!” The Grunt took out a Poke Ball and sent out a bigger rat.

“RATICATE” The Pokémon named Raticate yelled “Go Crowza!” Tommy threw out his Poke Ball and got ready for the battle that he really didn't want to do.

When Eryn arrived at the SMP he had hoped to settle in a nice house probably sleep for a whole week and just relax after all those years studying but no, he had something to do

“So you're Eryn Stream” Eryn turned around and saw a Masked Green hooded man “Yes and you are?” “The Admin of this SMP Dream” Dream said and Eryn quickly felt nervous.

“So Dream, what do you need?” Eryn asks while watching Dream like he was studying him, “Well Eryn I'm so glad you ask, do you know what this is?” Dream said pulling out a shattered orb that was like an Ender Pearl but had Red and White on it, “And If I do?” Eryn asked Dream went close Eryn way to close “I need you to make these, I need them because a curtain toy if mine got lost while using this”

Eryn didn't know the metaphor of who Dream was Proscribing, but Eryn took a closer look at the broken orb and recognized it being one of the many things he learned “I know how to make it doesn't take too long” Eryn said and Dream went up to his Face “Tell me what you need, and I'll get them”

Making Eyes of Ender wasn't a major problem since apparently Dream had them way before whatever happened in the server, the problem was blaze rods which were all stored in the community house's portal and got stolen

And the Heart of the Sea was gotten rather quickly by someone named Ranboo who had a lot of them stored for collection

Dream had sent someone named Technoblade to get some blaze rods, but conveniently he had some Blaze Powder in his Ender Chest and gave two of them to Eryn

They all went to the Portal before the ring in their communicators rang

[Eryn unlock the achievement Eye Spy]

They all ignored that message and gave Eryn the materials, “Now is there anything we should know about this portal?” Dream asked “Only One person should go or else things will get unstable and end up with someone dying” Eryn said everyone quickly quieted “Is there a way to come back here?” Tubbo asked.

“Yes, just use this” Eryn took out two Eyes of Ender, but it had Green and Brown on it like a dirt block “This is an Ender Eye that can take you back to our dimension” Eryn gave it to Dream who passed it to Fundy “All you need to do is break it near you or whoever you want to bring and poof you guys are back here”

Fundy nodded and went to the portal that had all the Eyes of Ender inserted aside from one “Alright you ready?” Eryn asked and Dream responded for Fundy, “Yes he is”

Fundy hated that no one cared about what he actually thought but let it go as he saw Eryn place the Red and White Eye of Ender “Alright Good luck” Eryn said, but Dream quickly pulled him aside “Remember Fundy L'manburg is on your hands” and Dream pushed Fundy in the portal as everyone yelled at him

Fundy woke up in a City that look very “advanced” in his eyes there were holograms and floating signs it was spectacular Fundy was about to explore the place until an Old Lady stopped him

“Excuse me, Kid, where are your parents or guardians?” The Old Lady said looking troubled as Fundy himself was confused and saw some water he went to and saw his reflection.

He wasn't a fox or an adult he was 14 again and human just with orange hair, but his clothes barely fit him “What the *” Fundy himself noted the block he can't swear how can this universe get any worse

“How about I take you to the Pokémon Center and Nurse Joy can wait for your parents” The Old Lady said holding Fundy hand and taking him to a building with a red roof “Oh God ” Fundy said unhappy with everything

So many things happen on the overwhelming feeling he had got worse he meet a man named Lance that had a freaking Dragon named Dragonite and His Pokémon are tired and so was he

He was already planning on just sleeping in his current clothes and skipping showering and doing it tomorrow before entering the Pokémon Center and Nurse Joy asked him “Hello Tommy do you know this little guy?” And a small Child with Orange hair came out.

“Tommy!” The Child said with the most familiar voice that it took Tommy a while until he remembered “Fundy!?” As the Child hugged Tommy legs while Tommy stood still, shocked.

“Oh, you two are acquainted, can you tell me your relation, so I can mark the case solved?” Nurse Joy said with a board and pen “I'm his” Tommy looked at Fundy with a confused look “Uncle?” He said with a questioning tone that Fundy definitely caught, except Nurse Joy.

“Okay well I'll leave you two to go to a room” Nurse Joy said as she went back to her counter as Tommy looked at Fundy with fear sure he's a child, but Fundy might do something

“How about we go to my Room?” Tommy said as Fundy agreed and followed him it was a decently short walk before entering the room but when they arrived Tommy instantly looked at Fundy with an angry and scared look in his eyes.

“What are you doing here, Fundy?” Tommy didn't yell he didn't want people to hear as Fundy looked sad “I was” Fundy was playing with his hands as he let out a breath.

“I was su- I mean, I left the SMP!” Fundy said as if he were backtracking his words, but Tommy decided he will trust what Fundy was saying.

“Can I ask why?” Tommy raised his eyebrow “I always got ignored or told I'm being childish and now Dr- here I'm a kid and I saw those weird creatures and some of them look cute, so I just want to stay here”

Fundy knew he was saying bull*- he means crap, but he was kind of saying the truth this world looks peaceful and the creature he learned are called Pokémon are adorable (some of them) and some are cool

Besides, he's a kid now not an adult can you blame him for actually wanting to be his actual age and explore a bit, and maybe he can actually have a connection with his Uncle (he saw the hesitation he wants Tommy to know that he still sees Tommy as an Uncle)

“Okay Fundy I just dealt with so much today so how about we both go to bed, and I'll teach you what I know about this world and tell you what I'm doing” Tommy said with bags in his eyes most likely from tired and Fundy agreed and went asleep next to Tommy since the room they stayed in only had One bed

“Goodnight Fundy” Tommy said and Fundy didn't say it back he waited for a few minutes, and he heard soft snores coming from Tommy from their Fundy grabbed the Eye of Ender he was actually thinking about the but he threw it away and a small portal came out taking only grass with it

“I'm not good back to the heck hole” Fundy quickly didn't like the no swearing in this dimension, but he doesn't care as long as it means no government or wars

He fell asleep peacefully hugging Tommy just like when he was little it felt just like home

When morning came around, Tommy got all of his Pokémon food and Fundy some Waffle that had a Pikachu face on it which he found adorable

He found Fundy woke up and just staring at the window with a happy expression. It was at that moment Tommy just noticed it, “Hey Fundy where's your hybrid features?” It seemed Fundy himself didn't know because he just placed his hands on his head where his ears used to be.

“No Clue don't really care that much now, can I pet one of your Pokémon?” Fundy asked Tommy smiled and let him and Fundy head straight head first for Soteria who was just laying down without any care.

“Okay, maybe they don't like sudden hugs, how about we get you your own?” Tommy offered and Fundy took it immediately and Tommy returned everyone to their Poke Balls and took Fundy to the tall grass “Okay Fundy I will battle it for you but you” Tommy gave Fundy a Blue Poke Ball “Gotta catch It ready?” Fundy nodded as Tommy took a step on the grass and immediately jumped out Red Fox Pokémon

“Vulpix!” The Pokémon yelled out that Fundy didn't understand until Tommy said “That's ... Her name Fundy, I'm just battle her for a while, and you throw this at her!” Fundy made a face of understanding and kept watching.

Tommy threw out Mars who did little damage and Tommy looked at Fundy “Okay Throw the Poke Ball Fundy!” And Fundy got the Blue Poke Ball and threw it the Poke Ball

It hit the Vulpix head and a head and the Pokémon turn into some red wave and went inside the Poke Ball, and it shakes

Shake...

Shake...

Shake...

[Fundy caught a Vulpix♀]

“Do you want to name her Fundy?” Tommy asked Fundy while putting his hand on his back, Fundy thought about it for a minute and said.

“Kit because she's a fox and I used to be a fox hybrid” Fundy looked joyful and Happy “Okay now let's get you some new clothes because those are a bit too big” Tommy and Fundy laughed at that

Maybe their bond will heal Fundy thought

When Tommy and Fundy left the forest, Fundy also chose to have Kit outside her Poke Ball and just carried her in his arms

And then they went to the Gym, "So why do you need to be here?" Fundy asked as he turned his head, even Kit copied him, which was adorable. "Eh I needed something to do besides it's a good challenge" Tommy sighed "And I guess it feels like something I would do when I was ten" Tommy said a bit disappointedly

"Can I do it?" Fundy as at Kit even agreed, "Maybe then again, the first gym is kind of I long trip from here." Fundy thought about it, and it's best maybe doing his journey when he's sixteen. That way, he and kit can beat Tommy.

"And what happens when you get all of these badges" Fundy asked "According to the box called Television, you fight the champion, and we'll try to win" Tommy said as both him and Fundy entered the gym and Fundy was underwhelmed

He expected it to have water everywhere or something elegant, but it's a basic maze and dull. "I guess according to this statue this is a normal type gym and the leader is named Whitney" and for some reason, that name made Tommy scared

"Alright, let's get this over with" Tommy said as he went into the maze and Fundy followed the seemingly easy maze and there a girl with pink hair in pigtails stared at them with confidence

"My name is Whitney, and I'm the gym leader of Goldenrod City and I specialize in Normal type Pokémon" Whitney said as Tommy grabbed his Pokémon, but Fundy halted everything "Wait Ms. Whitney, where can I go I'm just spectating" Whitney looked at Fundy and looked around the stadium and saw the seats?

"Yeah right there!" Whitney pointed at the seats "Okay Whitney I have my Nephew here so by rules I have to look cool, so prepare to get beaten" Tommy said, getting Mars Poke Ball on standby while Whitney laughed at Tommy.

[Gym Leader Whitney Challenge you to a Battle]

"Go Clefairy!" Whitney said sending out a pink fairy Pokémon that wasn't a normal Type, but Tommy stayed silent.

"Go Mars" Tommy sending out his Riolu who let out a battle roar as he got ready to fight, but for some reason, Whitney smirked

"Mars, let's start things off with Metal Claw!" Tommy said as he looked at his Pokédex, showing him what moves Mars knows.

Mars claws extended to some degree and hardened to iron as he rushed to Clefairy and tried hitting her but to no avail "Clefairy use Double Slap!" Clefairy jumped backwards and rushed to Mars, slapping his face three times instead of two, pushing Mars back.

"Hey, no fair, that was three slaps!" Tommy said, "Mars, let's get revenge, use Quick Attack!" Tommy ordered as Mars burst into blinding speed and elbowed Clefairy knocking her back quite a bit but something happened.

Mars stopped moving. He just stood there. "Mars, you okay?" Tommy asked and Mars turned around and had hearts in his eyes. "Haha that's Clefairy special ability Cute Charm since your Riolu is a boy and attack her he fell in love" Whitney said while Fundy was holding back a laugh while petting Kit.

"Okay, that wasn't the plan Mars Return! Now go Ares!" Tommy said as Mars went back inside the Poke Ball and Ares came out of his Poke Ball flames ignited and ready to fight, "Okay Ares use Flame Wheel!" Tommy ordered and Ares started to run.

While running, Ares quickly rolled and continued until a flaming Wheel appeared and hit Clefairy doing moderately decent damage, but Whitney was growling at Tommy "Clefairy use Encore against that brat" Tommy looked puzzled "But we look like the same age?" Tommy said, but Whitney smirked "I'm flattered you think I'm near your age, but I'm twenty kid" Okay now Tommy was confused

A spotlight hit Ares as Clefairy clapped around him making Tommy confused about what it's doing "Okay ignoring that Ares use Quick Attack!" Ares ignores Tommy and used Flame Wheel again, this time defeating Clefairy but Whitney chuckled.

"I'm down to my last Pokémon, but I'll show you how easily dreams are crushed" Whitney said as she got out a Poke Ball with an ominous aura "Go Miltank!" And a pink cow like Pokémon came out.

"Return Ares! Go Mars!" Tommy said, quickly switching Pokémon as Mars got into a battle stance "Okay use Counter" Tommy said quietly as Riolu got into a defense stance "Miltank use Attract!" Whitney said even doing a small heart with her hands.

Riolu again had hearts in his eyes, but Tommy didn't care "Okay Mars use Quick Attack" but Mars didn't attack, instead was gushing over Miltank like he was in love "Miltank use Rollout!" And Miltank did that rolled her body enough that it was covered by rocks, effectively knocking out Mars "Return Mars! Go Ares" Tommy said and thought everything through.

Okay, with Ares speed I should be fast enough to land at least a single good hit on Miltank and switch to Crowza "Okay Ares use Flame Wheel!" Tommy said as Ares surrounded himself in fire, "Miltank counter it with Rollout!" Whitney ordered as Miltank surrounded herself in rock. Both of them collided with each other, but only Ares was knocked out.

[Super Effective Hit]

Crap, "Okay I got this still. Go Soteria!" And there Tommy sent out Soteria as his blue rings glew strong "Soteria use Pursuit!" Soteria shrouded itself in darkness, and he was running to tackle Miltank, "Use Rollout." It hit Soteria again but harder. Okay Pokédex tell me about this move.

[Rollout the move forces the user to only use that move until it misses, as it progressively gets stronger each turn]

"Well that will be a problem. Soteria already looks he had enough" Tommy said "Come on kid just quit already" She right I can't win, Tommy thought "I conceded from the fight" Tommy said as he looked at Fundy who ran at him with worry

Fundy was bored and Kit was too, after Tommy went to train in the woods, so they stayed in this City. Of course, Fundy was a 14-year-old kid with a Pokémon, so he was technically, in this world, allowed to be independent, so he was walking around town.

It was cool. The place was big, nothing like L'manburg but to be fair, it's a place on water so not really a good comparison.

Fundy opened one door and saw... a classroom. Normally, he would walk out, but he's in a world that he knows nothing about, so he just awkwardly stood in place and the teacher noticed him "Oh Hello, who are you?"

“Oh my name is Fundy and I want to learn a little bit about Pokémon,” Fundy said, “Well I’ll be your teacher. My name is Roxanne. I am a gym leader in my home region, Hoenn, but please tell me about yourself and your current knowledge of Pokémon”.

“Well I'm with my Uncle, my Dad... Deceased and I'm from the Dream SMP and I just found out they existed” it seemed like that was a weird answer as Roxanne wrote that down “Really, so you just discovered they existed fascinating and here scientists and professors have concluded they're everywhere in the world anyway sit down right here I'll start basic”.

$$\begin{array}{c} \cdot \\ \vdots \\ * \cdots * \\ \vdots \\ \cdot \end{array} \approx \star \approx \begin{array}{c} \cdot \\ \vdots \\ * \cdots * \\ \vdots \\ \cdot \end{array}$$

Fundy left the school fully refreshed as the class was something he did want to learn about this world, and it did help as Kit left her ball and sat on his head

“Okay, since you're a fire type kit that means you and ground, water, and rock types don't agree hmm” Fundy saw a giant place that looked like an apartment complex sure he slept at the “Pokémon Center” they had comfy beds and good food (well compared to L'manburg it really isn't a good comparison)

He went inside and saw everything was unlocked, so he went to the first door and saw a Brown Fox like Pokémon “Hey Kid a little help I turned myself into a Pokémon and I can't reach this button. Can you please press it for me?” The Pokémon even begged with his paws

“Sure, here” Fundy went to press the button “Wait! Let me go here real quick” The Pokémon stepped into a tube “Now”.

Fundy pressed the button and the tube shut down and flashed and A Man Came Out! “Thanks for that, this happened to me last that and a kid with a red hat helped me anyway. My name is Bill. I'm a Pokémon Researcher and I made the Pokémon Storage Box”.

Fundy was still in shocked from what happened, so he just slowly nodded “Anyway, thanks for helping, so here a present for you to me, it was a Pokémon that I was stuck like an Eevee”

[Fundy gained an Eevee♂]

[Would you like to name it?]

Fundy thought about it and he named him

[Burg was added to your party]

The last name of L'manburg as a memory as the man looked at him, “By the way, what's your name kid and how old are you? You look old enough to be alone and start the Gym Challenges, but also you don't really know much about Pokémon”.

Shoot Baskets Fundy though “Oh I'm from this place called L'manburg and there was no Pokémon there really even outside of it, so I have no clue about anything, and I'm 14”

Bill took that answer well and gave Fundy a book and a Red Device

[Fundy acquired a Pokémon Species Book]

[Fundy acquired a Pokédex]

[These items went into your bag]

“Thank you, Mister” Fundy said, grateful. “It's okay you're technically a new trainer, and it's our job to give new trainers a starter” Bill said, throwing 3 Poke Balls

“These are Charmander, Squirtle and Bulbasaur from my region. consider this as an extra thank for helping me, but you can only choose one”.

Pressure Fundy though, but he went to Bulbasaur seeing as they looked the most nervous, “Oh man you chose that little guy that fantastic. Most new trainers want a Charmander or Squirtle”.

[Would you like to name Bulbasaur ♂?]

[Lettuce was added to your party]

“Oh wait, I should go, my Uncle might be wondering where I am, bye Bill!” And Fundy ran while Bill stared at his machine, “Seriously thought how do I always get trapped in a machine and some 12-year-old kid helps me?”

Fundy just did a thumbs up and passed out “Yeah I think that means we've been out too much. Let's go to the Center and ask the Nurse if she can treat you” Tommy picked up Fundy “Wow your light guess that also means time to eat”.

After a nice meal, Fundy saw Tommy buy potions and farm berries from the trees, and it felt peaceful, sure it was for a battle, but normally in the SMP he had to farm to survive. here as long as they had Poke Dollars they can survive and Tommy was fairly rich, so Fundy can use Tommy wallet for food

“Okay Whitney, I’m ready for Round 2!” Tommy yelled excitedly “Okay I’m staying out this time you have fun” Fundy said as Kit was basically eating Fundy food as well. “Ok but here let me give you some money” Tommy gave Fundy near 3,000 Poke Dollars and left.

“Okay Kit, let's see if they have fast food here”

Attempt 2

“Roll Out!” Whitney said as Henry was almost down, “Use Double Kick!” Tommy said, but as Henry ran she missed and got hit with another Roll Out.

Attempt 8

Tommy had bags in his eyes the amount of times he was battling “Crowza dodge and use peck!” Tommy commanded but as soon as Crowza hit Miltank he was infatuated, “I wish I can swear!”

Attempt 13

“Where's Fundy, is he okay?” Tommy said out loud as Henry again fell.

“Can I get another Slowpoke steak?” Fundy asked as his Pokémon were finishing their food with great sparkling water.

“Sir are you sure this is the 4th plate?” The waiter asked and Fundy thought about it “Yeah maybe it's time for dessert?” Fundy said as he looked at the dessert menu, “I'll take a Pika Pika Parfait”

“Probably playing with Kit” Tommy said as he saw Ares fall

Attempt 42

“Double Kick” Tommy said out of enthusiasm as Henry did manage to beat Whitney Miltank. Tommy got on his knees “Finally!” He cheered as Whitney also looked tired “Wow kid you could have given up after 2 hours ago, but you managed to beat me in 5” Tommy was shot full of energy “Wait I was battling for 5 hours?”

Tommy felt tired as he got a badge he felt wasn't worth 5 hours of his life as he went outside, and the sun was almost setting. “Where's Fundy?” Tommy asked as he went to the Pokémon Center and healed his Pokémon while he waited there was a cool pamphlet of some region called Alola

Tommy went to his room and saw Fundy and his Pokémon with food both in their mouths and happy

“Okay that explains where they were. Hey Fundy, I got the badge anyway we're staying here for the night before going to the next place, so if you need me” Tommy said, not even changing and face planted to the bed “I'll be pass out” and Tommy went to sleep as Fundy petted Ares “Do they usually take this long?” Ares shook his head.

“Welp I guess we're going tomorrow somewhere new” Fundy said as he also laid his head down

After clearing another forest, Tommy and Fundy saw a new town where it was more... Traditional and a burnt tower.

“Should we wear something like Phil here?” Fundy said as Tommy like the area “Nah imagine me in a kimono don't think I will survive that panic attack after Falkner” Tommy said as Fundy kind of new who he was from class actually speaking of class “I went to school

I liked it” Fundy said “Oh really I mean instead of science and coding over here we learn Pokémon and everything else” Tommy said.

As they entered the burnt tower and Tommy from the broken floorboards saw three dogs - like Pokémon of Red, Blue, and Yellow

Tommy and Fundy were intrigued so they decided to go to the bottom until Tommy switched Ares for Mars to walk with him

As the climb was about to start, they got stopped by a familiar Redhead for Tommy and a jerk for Fundy Larry

“..... Oh, it's you. You must be here to catch the legendary Pokemon to make yourself look strong. That is only a dream. You see, the legendary Pokemon suits a Trainer like me who has sworn to become the strongest Trainer. A battle with Team Rocket Grunts is just right for you!” Larry said as Tommy looked at Fundy, “Do you want to battle him?”

Fundy let Kit jump to the battlefield. “One word Bet” Fundy said as he got ready to battle

$$\begin{array}{c} \cdot \\ \cdot \end{array} \cdot * \cdots * \approx \star \approx * \cdots * \begin{array}{c} \cdot \\ \cdot \end{array}$$

PKMN Trainer Larry Challenges you to a battle

“Go! Zubat!” Larry said and his Zubay came out, “Okay Burg!” Fundy said, sending his Eevee “Okay what moves do you have again? Okay, use Growl!” Fundy said, but Burg was a slow and Zubat flew out the way and bit Burg's ear. “Leech-Life” Larry said.

Fundy was thinking, How does Tommy make it look easy? “Okay use Quick attack around the burnt wood to make Zubat dizzy!” Fundy commanded and Tommy looked with interest and pride in Fundy being so creative as Burg jumped around at super speed, “Okay now Bite!” Burg jumped from the side and bit Zubat on its Wing, biting a critical nerve as Zubat immediately went down.

Larry return Zubat “No Fair, you have to just damage each other not to do that!” Larry said as he sent out Magnemite “Screw the rules I have logic” Fundy returned Burg and sent out Kit “Okay Kit use Ember!” Fundy said as Kit was after hit Magnemite as it was Super Effective it even burned Magnemite “Use Thunder Shock!” Larry said as circle of electricity hit Kit but did nothing, “That was something? Okay Kit use Ember!” But it failed as Kit was paralyzed and couldn't move.

But the burn still took out Magnemite Fundy returned Kit and sent out Lettuce “Look Kid I'll be honest here your decent half good at best, but you also need some status affecting attacks” Larry said as he sent out Gastly “Fundy you can do this!” Tommy cheered as Fundy looked at Lettuce “Okay use Leech Seed!” Fundy said as Lettuce shot seeds out his Flower Bulb and to Gastly as Gastly licked Lettuce, which was gross, but it hurt him very little, but it didn't paralyze him, “Okay now use vine whip!” Fundy said as he hit Gastly once as Gastly went invisible “Okay Gastly use Glare!” Larry said as Gastly reappeared behind Lettuce, scaring making him lower his defense greatly.

“Okay Lettuce, use Vine Whip on that burnt piece of Wood and hit Gastly repeatedly with Vine Whip!” As Lettuce done his Order Gastly went invisible, so Fundy shouted, “Okay change of plans use vine whip around you like a barrier!” As Lettuce vines circles around him fast, Fundy felt the wind going everywhere until he saw Gastly went corporeal again and getting hit repeatedly until Gastly fainted.

“Still want to use your last Pokémon? I have a grass type and all two of my other Pokémon left surrender?” Fundy gave Larry mercy. Larry looked pissed as he returned Gastly and turned “... Aw, whatever. You would never be able to catch a legendary Pokemon anyway.”

“I wish we can swear, so I can use the a word” Fundy said “Actually I think I prefer not swearing sure it's making me limited, but I think it's like us having a decent life and Fundy” Tommy said as he put his hand on Fundy shoulder Fundy felt his heart beat faster “I'm proud of you bud” Tommy took his arm off Fundy shoulder “Now come on don't be a Slowpoke”

After climbing down the last set of ladders there they saw them 3 dog like Pokémon Fundy felt Entei stare while Tommy felt Suicune stare until they all ran away by a man in a magician's clothing

"I dug a hole here, too... I was shocked! Suicune raced by like a blur, right in front of my eyes! For ten years I chased Suicune, and I finally got to see it. I'm all choked up! I owe this all to you! Thank you! I heard that the legendary Pokémon of Ecruteak tested humans by allowing them to get close. I'm going to track Suicune, let's meet again! Farewell!" The man said they didn't say their name or ask for their name.

Fundy looked at Tommy "It felt like he was calling to me" Tommy looked at Fundy "Me too" the Uncle and Nephew stood there for a while before leaving too Morty the ghost Gym

Genuinely putting Morty was easy he used only 3 Pokémon and Ares and Soteria were able to beat them with ease since all Tommy did was use Flame Wheel and Pursuit

And Soteria learned Shadow Ball which meant more firepower for him as they explored route 38 West and Fundy fell in a small pond

"Be careful, you were lucky lettuce got you before you drowned" Tommy said as Crowza was fanning the flames that Ares made for Fundy to warm up

"So where to next?" Tommy thought and took out his poke gear "Some place called Olivine City? I hope I said it correctly".

As the night fell on then they both slept a peaceful sleep

The next day they reached Olivine City and found out the Gym leader was away so they went to the lighthouse and found a girl who was blocked off by everyone with an Ampharos (thank you Pokédex)

So started the painful climb of the tower

Tommy battled everyone with Mars and for some reason, he could feel a connection to him more than his other Pokémon

As Tommy and Fundy climbed the final ladder and wheezed, they saw the women tending to the Ampharos "...Oh, hello you must be a Gym challenger I'm Jasmine the Steel Type Gym Leader" "Oh I am a challenger I'm just wondering what's wrong with this Pokémon me and my nephew are still very new to Pokémon because our... region we never saw one".

Jasmine looked surprised, "My... What a fascinating thing Pokémon are everywhere in the world to have a region that doesn't have one is unheard of" Jasmine said as Fundy looked at Amphy

"Is there anything we can do to help him?" Jasmine nodded "Yes if you may go to Cianwood there is a medicine for Amphy. I would go, but I can't leave Amphy unintended".

"We can go!" Fundy said as Jasmine smiled "Thank you two greatly, do you have a registered ride Pokémon?" Fundy and Tommy looked at each other "No what's that" Jasmine gave them a clear ball "Use that near the water lift the ball a calm and tamed wild Pokémon will help you" As Jasmine open the door letting Tommy and Fundy leave they went down the elevator listening to a calm chime of the door opening.

As they reached the sea Fundy lifted the ball and out a shine came and a Lapras appeared before them "Wow" Fundy was astonished as he looked at the Lapras "Can you take us Cianwood?" As Lapras nodded, Tommy helped Fundy on Lapras's back "Thank you so much".

As the calm cool water they were surfing on Fundy was looking at the cool ocean Pokémon using Tommy's Pokédex just to learn he especially liked the yellow Magikarp sadly, there wasn't time to catch it as Amphy needed their medicine... hold up

"Is Amphy a dude or?" Fundy questioned "Well it got a cute name so maybe girl, but I've been using they/them for them" Fundy hummed in agreement "I'll do that too" Lapras left them on the beach of Cianwood as Tommy and Fundy explored they saw a familiar Gym roof "Oh look" Fundy looked at the sign "It's Chuck the Fighting Time Gym" Tommy got out Mars "Hey Mate ready for a battle soon?" as Mars got out the ball with a mighty roar "Yeah I think your pretty motivated for it first let's get the medicine for Amphy," Tommy said as He and Fundy went to a house and grabbed the medicine.

After reaching Cianwood Tommy and Fundy quickly threw up from sea sickness or just riding on a Pokémon as they left the Pokémon center and asked the locals for information as they stood in front of the house of the man who had the medicine as Fundy took it

“You look beat?” Fundy said “I am I found Suicune and that random magician guy we found in the tower ambushed me and battle me” Tommy said as he leaned towards the gym wall “I’ll do this gym tomorrow” Tommy said as they walked to the Pokémon Center and getting a room.

It was only one room “You can take the bed” Tommy said “Its fine I can sleep on the floor” Fundy spoke like it was common, but Tommy wasn’t having not like...not like L’manburg “You are sleeping on the bed I’m not taking no for an answer” Tommy said as he put Fundy on the bed “What gives I can handle the floor!” Fundy said.

“Holy f I wish I can swear, Fundy! You aren't a hybrid anymore you aren't an adult you are my nephew and a kid” Tommy said, “So are you” Fundy argued “Yeah, but you were always more important to me! Did you think I wanted you involved in that mess? I wanted you home” Tommy argued back.

Fundy winced, “You what?” Fundy asked “I wanted you home, but Wilbur never cared he needed men and you, prime sakes you wanted to prove yourself to him don't even deny it” Tommy said as Fundy sighed “Well how else was I supposed to get him to spend time with me?” Fundy said.

“Was I that bad of an Uncle that I wasn’t enough?” Tommy asked as Fundy was silent “You...you did more that enough you did more than you should for how old you were” Fundy said a bit sad at Tommy childhood “Then let me keep taking care of you” Tommy said as he placed his hand on Fundy shoulder “And let's be clear here you can see me as your Dad or Uncle or just a kid who's super annoying, but I love you and that will never change”.

Fundy, remember the time he called Tommy Dad the was the worst time of his life hearing Wilbur scream at Tommy and probably worse for that it made Fundy stop calling him Dad “Sure let's just go to bed” Fundy said as he got on the bed and Tommy laid on the floor

As they slept, Kit cuddled closer to Fundy as Ares slept near Tommy

Tommy woke up and went to the gym as Fundy was amazed of how there are in doors waterfalls “Well...for a fighting type gym this feels very water...” Tommy said as he walked through the gym and “Holy Prime those arms” Tommy said seeing the man pump iron while a waterfall as he let the weights go “Oh a challenger I was about to meditate with the waterfall”.

“God this guy is metal” Fundy said maybe a bit of awe as the guy got up “I'm Gym Leader Chuck and I'm the master of Fighting Types now how many badges do you have?” Chuck asked.

“Um...4 Sir” Tommy said as Chuck chuckled as he got into a fighting stance

[Gym Leader Chuck wants to Battle]

“Okay then... Go! Primeape!” Chuck said, “Okay then Go Crowza!” Tommy threw his Pokeball as Crowza stayed in the sky, “Okay use Double Team!” Chuck ordered his Primeape as multiple clones appeared.

“That's okay Crowza use swift and on the entire arena!” Tommy yelled as Crowza unleashed a valley of stars destroying each clone, “Okay then peck let's go!” Crowza dove down like an air strike as strike Primeape

[Critical Hit!]

Tommy grinned until a light enveloped Crowza until “Corvisquire!” Crowza yelled as Tommy was in awe.

[Crowza learned Hone Claws]

[Crowza wants to learn Pluck, what moves should they forget?]

> Peck

[Crowza forgot Peck and learned Pluck]

[Crowza wants to learn Fury Attack what moves should they forget?]

> None

“Okay, not every day a Pokémon evolves mid-battle” Chuck made Primeape go back into his poke ball as he grabbed another one “Go Poliwrath!”

“Well kid since you're sticking to the air I will force you to the ground, Use Hypnosis!” Poliwrath sent psychic waves as Crowza eventually fell asleep, “Return!” Tommy called using his poke ball “Henry!” Tommy threw out his Nidorina, “Use Body Slam!/Take Down!” The Pokémon clash to each other.

Poliwrath face turned purpled because of Henry's poison point ability as Chuck's Poliwrath eat a citrus berry that it was holding healing it but not curing its poison

“Now to buy time... Growl!” Henry let out a cry as a blue wave surrounded Poliwrath, lowering its attack “Take Down make it fierce!” Chuck yelled.

Fundy was in awe at the battle maybe Morty battle was just that easy but this was leagues better

“Keep dodging now, use leer!” Tommy order as Henry stared at Poliwrath as another Blue wave surrounded Poliwrath “Now meet with Poliwrath with take down!” Tommy ordered as they clashed and soon Poliwrath went down.

“Heh...” Chuck returned Poliwrath and tossed Tommy his gym badge, “Yeah! We did it!” Tommy cheered “Hey kid with my gym badge you can use the flying taxi service unlike Galar who, funny enough use the final evolution of your Corvisquire we use Pidgeot’s” Chuck said as he registered Tommy for it in his weird clear ball.

Tommy left the gym as he lifted the ball and a Pidgeot came in with a harness and a small lift for it to carry it “Alright Fundy lets go” Tommy said as Fundy was excited with stars in his eyes to fly
